

Questions of His Own

In the only childhood story of Jesus in the Bible, Jesus demonstrates that when we ask Him “_____?” He has questions of His own, for us.

“Son, why have you treated us like this?” v. 48

How could / Why would Jesus let them go through three days of such uncertainty? What was He doing for three days?

Often in the _____ of anxiety, we question God.

“Why were you searching for me?” v. 49

Mary admits through the word “searching” that the temple wasn’t the only place they looked. (v.48)

If we’re not careful, other _____ can be our first course of action.

“Didn’t you know I had to be in my Father’s house?” v. 49

Joseph and Mary’s anxiety clouded / blocked their thinking. (verse 50 –51)

Sometimes in the midst of the valley, we can accidentally, let go of _____ we’ve learned and believed.

Difficult times test our confidence of His . . .

~ Pick One or Pick A Pair ... and explain why

Sovereignty

Will

Faithfulness

Wisdom

Plan

Timing

Love

Goodness

Two things we must always keep in mind:

_____ He is and

_____ He does!

Next Week: “Surviving Sudden Storms”

We will marvel at the night Jesus fell asleep in a storm.

We’ll look at the different reactions of the disciples and Jesus in the same storm.